WHICH ONE IS RIGHT FOR ME?

TEXAS BEST
FENCE
& PATIO

Pergolas are independent structures that provide coverage for a designated area.

Adds visual interest and a tall architectural interest to your yard

Can serve as a garden space with vertical posts and lattice grids that are perfect for climbing vines

Provides additional outdoor privacy and can block unsightly views when placed strategically

Patio covers are structures that are attached directly to your home.

Provides coverage from inclement weather, bright sun and intense heat

Expands your homes livable space without requiring an extensive remodel

Offers shade that helps keep the inside of your home cooler in the summer months
